Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Sunday 18 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly bright, warm, but drizzly weather for parts of northwest.

Today:
Dull and drizzly across the northwest at first this becoming more confined to the southern Western Isles, Skye and Lochalsh in the afternoon as the north turns sunnier. East Highland staying dry with some sunshine at times. Lighter winds. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Mostly dry with some evening sunshine then clear periods tonight, but still some cloudier skies around Skye and parts of west coast. Cool around dawn. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Monday:
Perhaps still some cloud lingering over the Western Isles, but generally a fine dry and sunny day. Warmer, locally hot in the east. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
A good deal of fine dry and sunny weather, and becoming hot. More cloud for the Western Isles and far northwest on Tuesday before here too turning sunny.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.